Here, there, everywhere. Blue Tongue Lizard talk

Dear Families,

Welcome to the last week of Term 2! I'm sure everyone is looking forward to a little down time after a very disruptive term.

Parent teacher interviews for K-2 will be held this week. We feel that this opportunity is essential for the wellbeing of our students as we continue to navigate our way out of unprecedented times. Please ensure you are on time and finish your meeting on time, this is crucial to avoid congestion in the corridors and adhere to social distancing measures. We thank you for your cooperation in working together to keep everyone safe.

3-6 parent teacher interviews will take place in Week 2 of Term 3. To book an available time please go to the below link and follow the steps.

1. Go to: <https://www.schoolinterviews.com.au/>
2. Make a booking.
3. Then type the event.
4. The event code for parents is: qgt6m

Thank you to our Stage three families for returning the note about camp. Our fingers and toes are crossed that the camp can go ahead for our students. As you will see on the next note that is coming home requesting a deposit, if camp does not go ahead, you will receive a full refund. We sincerely thank you for your willingness to assist in helping this to happen, especially given the short notice.

Today, we have had to move our school photos to Week 5 Friday 21 August. Please note the date change. Purchase order envelopes will be sent home at the beginning of Week 3.

Enjoy the winter break and we look forward to seeing all our students return on Tuesday 21st July for the commencement of Term 3. Monday 20 July is a school development day for staff.

Warm regards,

Melinda

Bell Music

This week's bell song:
'Adore You' by Harry Styles.

This week's bell song is 'Adore You' by Harry Styles.

Harry Styles is an English singer, songwriter and actor who became a household name as a member of the band, One Direction. After the band's break up in 2016, Styles has continued as a solo artist. To date, he has had two albums, both of which hit the number 1 spot in over 10 different countries.

'Adore You' was released on 6 December 2019. The song has been a top 10 single in countries such as Australia, America, UK, Canada, Ireland, New Zealand and Belgium.

The reason why this song was chosen to be this week's bell song:

An ode to the mid-year holidays: Who doesn't adore a holiday? I'm not sure if Harry Styles had the holidays in mind as his muse when he wrote this song, but it works for me. It's been a challenging start to the year. Let's hope this holiday marks the start of some maintained normality returning back to all our lives. Stay safe, relax and have fun. See you next term.

I hope you enjoy the song.

Yours in music appreciation,
Mr Dewhurst

Athletics Carnival

Save the date! The Athletics carnival has been scheduled for Friday the 31st July!

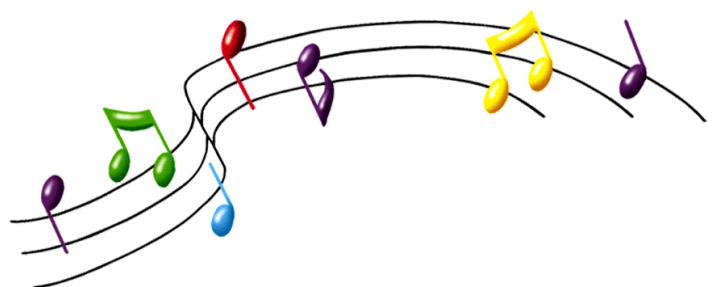

Our Athletics carnival is open for all students from 2-6. The carnival will be at Tom Hunter Park in Faulconbridge with students travelling by bus to and from the oval. It promises to be a great day!

Crescendo – Music Program Information and Updates

Instrument tutorials have recommenced for flutes, clarinets, saxophones, trumpets and guitar. Drums and percussion will commence next term. Concert Band has also resumed. All students need to bring their own instruments, reeds if applicable and music. Looking forward to hearing our students play once again! Just a reminder to please finalise all Band fees by the end of the Term

We look forward to hearing beautiful music throughout our school again and we thank our tutors for their amazing commitment to the music program.

Kindergarten Climbers

Kindergarten have been very busy designing their own obstacle course each day. It's great to see them working together after so much time apart, especially with all the beautiful sunshine we have had.

What adventurous little people we have!

Look at how well they can climb and balance.
